

GABE PHOENIX BIO

Gabe Phoenix has charm and stage presence that provokes memories of a bygone era. His cool style and show biz swagger have earned him a reputation as a highly entertaining and polished performer.

Based on a tiny Island off the East coast of Queensland, Australia. Gabe is most often seen leaving his Island home, travelling and performing both internationally and interstate. In fact, Gabe has been performing to appreciative audiences for over 18 years.

So, no rest under the coconut palms just yet for Gabe.

His natural vocal ability has earned him many accolades. Winning his first singing competition at age 7. However, it was his hard work perfecting Elvis's distinct style that won him first place champion in the Pro-Gospel Division 2019 at Lake George, New York – one of the largest Elvis Festivals in the world. More recently Gabe was cast as 'Elvis' in the Australian Subway Commercial.

Gabe's clear tone, attention to detail and respect for Elvis continues to captivate audiences as he pays tribute to the King of Rock n Roll!
